Sol.8.(d) to working

There are some phrases that are always followed by a gerund(V-ing). Such phrases are 'with a view to, looking forward to, in addition to, accustomed to, habituated to, be used to, prone to, etc.' Hence, 'accustomed to working' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.20.(c) does not like

Sol.21.(a) are going abroad

The word "abroad" already means to or in a foreign country, so it does not take a preposition like to, for, in, or towards before it. Hence, "are going abroad" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.27.(d) to marry her

"One of + plural noun + singular verb" is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'were' must be replaced with the singular verb 'was'. Hence, 'was not addressed' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.106.(c) even more significant than previously predicted

Comparative degree is used with 'than'. Therefore, 'much' must be replaced with 'more'. The given sentence needs an adjective 'significant' to describe the noun 'consequence', not the adverb 'consequently'. Hence, 'even more significant than previously predicted' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.107.(a) is praying

When a singular subject ('The captain') is followed by a phrase like 'as well as', 'along with', 'in addition to', etc., the verb must agree with the first subject (the captain). Therefore, the singular verb 'is' will be used. Hence, 'is praying' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.108.(a) has forgotten

"Neither....nor/ Either....or" is a conjunction pair that is used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. This is called the rule of proximity. In the given sentence, the subject closest to the verb is 'the choir director', which is singular. Therefore, 'have' must be replaced with 'has'. Hence, 'has forgotten' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.109.(a) is inspecting

When a singular subject ('The chief engineer') is followed by a phrase like 'accompanied by', 'along with', 'as well as', etc., the verb must agree with the first subject. Therefore, the singular verb 'is' will be used. Hence, 'is inspecting' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.110.(c) might have been prevented

The given sentence is an example of a third conditional sentence and the if-clause is in the past perfect tense ('If + subject + had + V₃'). The main clause is in the passive voice and 'might have + been + V₃' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'might have been prevented' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.111.(a) because

'Because of' is followed by a noun phrase but in the given sentence, we have a clause afterwards. Therefore, 'because' will be used as a conjunction to join the two clauses. Hence, 'because' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.112.(d) had completed

If two actions took place in the past then the 1st action must be in the Past perfect tense (Had + V₃) and the 2nd action must be in the Simple Past tense(V_2). In the given sentence, 'completing all the arrangements' is the first action. Hence, 'had completed(V_3)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.113.(a) as badly as

When comparing two things using 'as...as', an adjective or adverb should be in its positive degree. Since 'drives' is a verb, an adverb is required to describe how he drives. 'Badly' is a positive degree adverb. Hence, 'as badly as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.114.(a) as efficiently as

When comparing two things using 'as...as', an adjective or adverb should be in its positive degree. Since 'performs' is a verb, an adverb is required to describe how it performs. 'Efficiently' is a positive degree adverb. Hence, 'as efficiently as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.115.(b) had gained

'By the time' is used to indicate the completion of one action before another. 'By the time + simple past tense, ... past perfect tense' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'gained(V_2)' must be replaced with 'had gained(V_3)'. Hence, 'had gained' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.116.(a) submitted

The phrase "would rather + subject + verb" is used to express a preference for someone else's action. When referring to a preference for the present or future, simple past tense(V_2) is used after the subject. Hence, 'submitted(V_2)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.117.(d) easiest

'Easiest' is the correct superlative degree of 'easy'. Hence, 'easiest' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.118.(c) does he agree

When sentences begin with negative adverbs like 'Hardly', 'Rarely', 'Seldom', etc., inversion of the subject and auxiliary verb is required. For simple present tense, the auxiliary verb 'do' or 'does' is used. Since the subject is 'he' (singular), 'does' is required. Hence, 'does he agree' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.119.(c) had been reading

Past perfect continuous tense(had been + V_3) is used to describe an action that has been happening for some time in the past before being interrupted by another action. Hence, 'had been reading(V_3)' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.120.(c) we reach

When we talk about an action that will be completed before a specific time in the future, simple present tense is used to indicate that specific time. 'Plural subject + V₁' is the correct structure of simple present tense. Hence, 'we reach(V₁)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.121.(b) have been aching constantly

'Since' is used in present perfect continuous tense to denote an action that started in the past and is still going on. "Plural subject + have been + V_{ing}" is the correct structure of present perfect continuous tense. Hence, "have been aching constantly" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.122.(a) for two months

'For' is used for a definite period of time.

For example:- five years, six months, ten days, etc. 'Since' is used to denote a time in the past when something started. Hence, 'for two months' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.123.(c) had felt

If two actions took place in the past then the 1st action must be in the Past perfect tense(Had + V₃) and the 2nd action must be in the Simple Past tense(V₂). In the given sentence, 'feeling some pain on the left knee' is the first action. Hence, 'had felt(V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.124.(c) at the airport

'At' is used to denote a specific place. 'In' is used to indicate the location or presence of an object inside something. 'Airport' is a specific place where planes land. Hence, 'at the airport' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.125.(c) were you

The phrase 'If i were' is generally used in the subjunctive mood to talk about possibilities, wishes, or conditions that are contrary to reality. 'If I were... (would + V₁) / (would have + V₃)' is the correct grammatical structure. Hence, 'were you' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.126.(a) to this kind of work

The phrase "used to" means accustomed to or familiar with something. Therefore, "I am not used to this kind of work" is the correct grammatical structure.

Sol.127.(c) explained the topic to him

The verb 'explain' does not take a direct object pronoun (like him) immediately after it. Therefore, the correct form is explained the topic to him.

Sol.128.(a) told me a lie

In the given sentence, we need to say that he lied to me. The correct way is He told me a lie. Therefore, option (a) told me a lie is the correct answer.

Sol.129.(c) has submitted their documents

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", 'Each of + Plural Subject + Singular verb' is grammatically the correct structure. Therefore, 'Each of the candidates has submitted their documents' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.130.(d) was not verified

The sentence is in the past tense because it refers to a research paper that had already been written. Therefore, the verb phrase must also be in the past tense. Hence, 'was not verified' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.131.(d) would go

The reporting verb said is in the past tense, so the future form will go changes to would go in indirect speech. Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.132.(d) were you

"If I were V₂ (past form of the verb)" is the correct grammatical structure for a conditional sentence. Hence, 'was' will be replaced with 'were' to make the given sentence grammatically correct.

Sol.133.(a) a lot of work

"Work" is an uncountable noun, so we cannot say "much works" or "many works." The correct way to express a large quantity is "a lot of work." Hence, option (a) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.134.(c) helping me

The verb deny is followed by a gerund (-ing form), not an infinitive. Therefore, the correct sentence is "He denied helping me".
