Solutions :-

Sol.1.(b) (2) - were ready for the sudden fire drill

'Were' should be replaced with 'was'. When 'neither... nor' connects two subjects, the verb agrees with the subject closest to it. In this case, 'the teacher' is singular, so the verb should be singular ('was'). Hence, 'was ready for the sudden fire drill' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.2.(b) (2) - remains a contentious subject

'Remains' must be replaced with 'remain'. The subject of the sentence is 'The profound implications' (plural). The phrase 'a field still largely inscrutable to the uninitiated' provides additional information about 'quantum theories' but does not change the number of the main subject. Therefore, a plural verb is required. Hence, 'remain a contentious subject' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.3.(b) (2) - ranging from sustainable infrastructure to social equity, often demands

'Demands' must be replaced with 'demand'. The subject of the sentence is 'The myriad challenges' (plural). The phrase 'confronting modern urban planners' is a participial phrase modifying the subject and does not change its number. Therefore, a plural verb is required. Hence, 'often demand' is the most appropriate correction.

Sol.4.(c) (3) - before the deadline, and they shall submits
'Submits' must be replaced with 'submit'.

When using modal verbs like 'shall' (or 'will', 'can', 'may', etc.), the main verb that follows must be in its base form. Therefore, 'shall submit' is the correct form. Hence, 'and they shall submit' is the most appropriate correction.

Sol.5.(c) (3)

According to the 'Rule of Parallelism', two or more words or phrases in a list must be in the same form. In the given sentence, "increasing membership" and "improving communication channels" are gerund phrases. "To foster a sense of community" is an infinitive phrase. To maintain parallelism, the third item should also be a gerund phrase. Hence, "and fostering a sense of community" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.6.(c) (3)

According to the 'Subject-Verb Agreement Rule', a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the main subject is "The unique challenges," which is plural. Therefore, the verb should also be plural ("make") instead of singular ("makes"). Hence, "make its successful completion" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.7.(b) (2) and promoting critical scholarship

'Both ... and' is a fixed conjunction pair and the same part of speech should be used after each. Therefore, 'promoting' must be replaced with 'promote' to match the form of the verb 'preserve'. Hence, 'and promote critical scholarship' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.8.(c) (3) - are increasingly becoming a topic

'Are' must be replaced with 'is'. The subject of the sentence is 'The profound impact' (singular). Therefore, a singular verb is required. Hence, 'is increasingly becoming a topic' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.9.(c) (3) - but also it was thoroughly tested 'Not only ... but also' is a fixed conjunction pair and the same part of speech is used after them. As there is an adjective after 'not only', we need to use an adjective after 'but also'. Therefore, 'it was' must be removed. Hence, 'but also thoroughly tested' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.10.(c) (3) - remain a subject of intense debate

The error is in subject-verb agreement. The subject of the sentence is the noun clause "What the ancient philosophers believed about the nature of reality and the purpose of human existence." Even though it describes multiple concepts, the clause itself functions as a singular entity. Therefore, the verb should be singular, "remains". Hence, 'remains a subject of intense debate' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.11.(c) (3) In the given sentence, there are two subjects joined by the conjunction 'and', which makes the subject plural. Therefore, 'has' must be replaced with the plural verb 'have'. Hence, 'have contributed significantly to the confusion' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.12.(b) (2) In the given sentence, the main subject is 'The list', which is singular. Therefore the singular verb 'was' will be used instead of 'were'. Hence, 'was prepared in haste without proper background checks' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.13.(d) (4) According to the Subject-Verb Agreement Rule, a singular subject always takes a singular verb, and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject "the inconsistent support" is singular, so it must take a singular verb. Hence, "contributes to a decline" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.14.(a) (1)

When "neither...nor" follows an infinitive (to + verb), the correct position of "neither" should be after the infinitive marker "to." Hence, "seeks to expand neither existing facilities" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.15.(a) (1)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule," a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject "committee" is a collective noun and acts as a single unit. Hence, "which oversees multiple departments" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.16.(c) (3)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule," a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject "The emergence" is singular. Hence, "has reignited" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.17.(b) (2) - and challenges established theories

In the given sentence, the subject is a 'that-clause' (That the experimental results contradict prior findings and challenges established theories). There is one clause, which is considered singular. Accordingly, the given sentence uses the singular verb 'suggests', which is the main verb. However, 'that-clause' consists of a plural subject 'results' and two verbs 'contradict' and 'challenges'. Therefore, the plural verb 'challenge' will be used. Hence, 'and challenges established theories' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.18.(b) (2) - then the power went out

'Barely' forms a pair with 'when', not 'then'. Hence, 'when the power went out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.19.(b) (2)

After "until", we use the simple present tense to refer to a future event. Hence, "until the research is published" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.20.(a) (1)

This is an inverted third conditional sentence. The correct structure for an inverted third conditional is "Had + subject + past participle." Hence, "Had she known about the danger" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.21.(d) (4)

If the paired conjunctions 'either...or', 'neither...nor', 'not only...but also' are used, the verb agrees with the subject closest to it. Here, the nearest subject is "teacher", which is singular. Hence, "has been changed" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.22.(c) (3) - but it also rises concerns

'Rises' must be replaced with 'raises'. 'Rise' means to move upwards or get up, while 'raise' means to bring up a topic for debate or discussion. In this context, concerns are being brought up, so 'raises' is the correct verb. Hence, 'but it also raises concerns' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.23.(b) (2) - were overly optimistic The main subject of the verb in this part of the sentence is "its interpretation" (singular), not "analysts" (plural). Therefore, the verb should be singular 'was', not plural 'were'. The correct phrasing should be "was overly optimistic". Hence, 'was overly optimistic' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.24.(c) (3)

Some Nouns like Cattle, work, Information, Scenery, Furniture, etc. are always written in the singular form so we can't make their plural form. Hence, "further information is" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.25.(b) (2)

"Neither...nor" is a conjunction pair that is used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. Here, the nearest subject is "the research team," which is singular. Hence, "were willing to compromise" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.26.(a) The central bank's decision not only aimed to curve inflation (1)

The use of 'curve' is incorrect in this sentence. Rather, we need to use the word 'curb', which means to control inflation. Hence, "The central bank's decision not only aimed to curb inflation" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.27.(a) (1)

When the auxiliary verb do, does, or did is used, the main verb must be in its base form. Hence, "Hardly did the manager know" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.28.(b) (2)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject "What we need right now", is singular, so the verb should also be singular. Hence, "is a strong leader" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.29.(c) (3) According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject "instruments" is plural, so the verb should also be plural. Hence, "that allow scientists to conduct" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.30.(b) 2

According to the Rule of Parallelism, when two or more verbs are connected by conjunctions such as and, or, nor, not only... but also, they must be in the same grammatical form. Hence, "but also criticize" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.31.(a) (1)

Generally, the plural of 'fish' is 'fish'. 'Fishes' is used only when there is a mention of different species of fish. But there is no such mention in the sentence. Hence, 'The fisherman caught many fish' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.32.(a) Seldom we realize (1)

After a negative adverb like 'seldom', inversion is required.

Inversion is a structure in which the helping verb comes before the subject and the main verb comes after the subject. The helping verb 'do' will be used for the plural subject 'we'. Hence, 'Seldom do we realize' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.33.(b) (2)

'To' is a fixed preposition used after the adjective 'committed' to indicate purpose or dedication. Hence, "committed to ensuring" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.34.(c) (3)

The structure "It was not until" requires that the clause which follows should be in the affirmative form, not in the interrogative structure. Hence, "that she felt confident" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.35.(b) (2)

he finally decided to call off from

The phrasal verb 'call off' does not take any preposition after it. 'Call off' means to cancel or abandon. Therefore, 'from' must be removed. Hence, 'he finally decided to call off' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.36.(a) (1) - The museum, which located near the river

In the given sentence, there is a relative clause (which located near the river) after the subject 'The museum'. In the relative clause, there is no verb after the pronoun 'which'. Here, we need to use the singular verb 'is' for the singular antecedent 'The museum'. Hence, 'The museum, which is located near the river' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.37.(b) (2)

When two subjects are joined by "along with," "as well as," or "in addition to," the verb agrees with the first subject. Here, the first subject is "The main actor," which is singular. Hence, "was praised" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.38.(a) (1)

The verb "assured" when used with a direct object usually follows the structure "assured someone that..." In the given sentence, there is no object after "assured." Hence, "assured the public that" or "assured the people (or us) that" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.39.(a) (1) - He seldom if never

'Seldom if never' should be replaced with 'seldom if ever'. The correct phrase is 'seldom if ever', meaning very rarely or almost never. 'Seldom if never' is grammatically incorrect. Hence, 'He seldom if ever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.40.(b) (2) - the proposal is reviewed

'Is reviewed' should be replaced with 'be reviewed'. After verbs like 'recommend, suggest, insist, demand' the subjunctive mood ("be + V₃" for passive structure) is used. Hence, "be reviewed by an independent expert" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.41.(b) (2)

The word reckless is an adjective, but after very, we need an adverb to describe the verb drives. Hence, "very recklessly" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.42.(c) (3)

The verb "reduce" is a transitive verb, meaning it directly takes an object without needing a preposition. Hence, "reduced overall efficiency" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.43.(c) (3) - have submitted its report to the governing
'Committee' is a collective noun which is generally considered singular. Therefore, 'have' must be replaced with the singular verb 'has'. Hence, "has submitted its report to the governing" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.44.(c) (3) - were surprisingly low
"The number + of + plural noun + singular verb" is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'were' must be replaced with the singular verb 'was'. Hence, 'was surprisingly low' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.45.(a) (1)
The verb "emphasize" is not followed by "on." It is a transitive verb that takes a direct object. Hence, "emphasized the need for" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.46.(b) (2)
The phrase "neither of" is always singular, so it must be followed by a singular verb. Hence, "applicants has submitted" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.47.(b) (2) - quite unique, possessing characteristics
'Unique' is an absolute or non-gradable adjective. This means we cannot use any quantifier with it. Therefore, 'quite' must be removed. Hence, 'unique, possessing characteristics' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.48.(b) (2)
After verbs like insist, suggest, recommend, demand, request, we use the subjunctive mood, where the base form of the verb (without "-s") follows that. Hence, "each member provides a written report" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.49.(d) (4)
The main verb "explained" is in the past tense, indicating that the action of data collection occurred earlier. Therefore, the correct tense should be past perfect passive. Hence, "data had not yet been collected" is the most appropriate form.

Sol.50.(b) (2)
In the given sentence, the noun "group" is singular and countable, so it requires the article "a" before it. Hence, "a new group of interns" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.51.(c) (3) - were evident from their delayed return
The subject of the sentence is the noun clause "That the expedition faced unforeseen challenges in the treacherous mountain terrain". As there is only one noun clause, the subject is singular. Therefore, the verb should be singular 'was', not plural 'were'. Hence, 'was evident from their delayed return' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.52.(c) (3) - have caused significant strain
In the given sentence, 'The sudden influx' is a singular subject that will take a singular verb. Therefore, 'have' must be replaced with 'has'. Hence, 'has caused significant strain' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.53.(b) (2)
In the given sentence, the word compliment is incorrectly used. The word compliment means to praise or express admiration, whereas complement means to complete or go well with something. Hence, "perfectly complement the colors" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.54.(c) (3)

'Each participant' is a singular pronoun and we generally use 'his' for singular indefinite pronouns. Therefore, 'their' must be replaced with 'his'. Hence, 'his report before' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.55.(b) (2) works tirelessly
In the given sentence, 'players' is a plural subject that will take a plural verb. Therefore, 'works' must be replaced with 'work'. Hence, 'work tirelessly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.56.(b) (2)
If paired phrases like "along with," "together with," or "as well as" are used, the verb agrees with the subject to which they are attached. In the given sentence, the subject "The CEO" is singular and is followed by "along with his senior advisors," so the correct verb is "is traveling." Hence, "is traveling" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.57.(b) (2) - to take more than two books
The verb 'let' is followed by an object and then the bare infinitive(V₁). Therefore, 'to' must be removed. Hence, 'take more than two books' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.58.(d) complains for
The verb 'complain' is typically followed by the preposition 'about' or 'of' when stating the reason for the complaint, not 'for'. Hence, 'complains about the noise' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.59.(c) (3)
When using "not only ... but also", the structure should be parallel. In the given sentence, "her dedication" is a noun phrase, so "her innovative ideas" should also be a noun phrase. Therefore, "her innovative ideas" is the most appropriate correction.

Sol.60.(b) never
The correct phrase is "seldom if ever", which means rarely. Hence, 'seldom if ever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.61.(c) (3) where will scientists conduct
When the Wh-word (what, how, why, where, when, etc) is used to start a relative clause in a sentence, the helping verb and the main verb both are used after the subject in the clause. Therefore, modal 'will' should be used after the subject 'scientists'. Hence, 'where scientists will conduct' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.62.(a) (1)
The word "equipment" is an uncountable noun and does not have a plural form. Therefore, "equipments" is incorrect and should be "equipment." Hence, "A large number of equipments were" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.63.(a) (1)
'In' is a fixed preposition used after the adjective 'proficient' to indicate skill in doing something. The given sentence uses "proficient for detecting", which is incorrect. Hence, "proficient in detecting" is the most appropriate correction.

Sol.64.(c) (3)
After "to", we use the base form of the verb, not the gerund (-ing form). Hence, "opportunity to discuss" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.65.(c) (3) and to paint landscapes
In the given sentence, there is an error of parallelism. 'Enjoys' is the main verb (finite verb) and there are three non-finite verbs after it. 'Enjoy' is followed by a gerund. The two verbs are in gerund form (reading, listening). The third verb 'to paint' must be replaced with the gerund form 'painting'. Hence, 'and painting landscapes' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.66.(b) (2)

The word "It's" is a contraction and should be used where a sentence would read "it is." "Its," with no apostrophe, is the possessive pronoun, like "his" and "her," used for nouns without gender. In the given sentence, the branches belong to the tree, so the possessive pronoun is required. Hence, "Its beautiful, sprawling branches" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.67.(c) (3)

The phrase "on paper plates" is meant to describe how the sandwiches were served, but its placement in the sentence makes it sound like the children or the shelter were on the plates. It should be placed closer to the word it modifies. Hence "The volunteers served sandwiches on paper plates to all the hungry children at the shelter" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.68.(c) (3) the storage facility was inspected

In the given sentence, 'The volunteers' is the subject and the phrase 'while collecting supplies for the flood victims' modifies the subject. Here, 'The volunteers' is the doer of the action (inspecting), therefore, the verb should be in the active form, not in the passive form. Therefore, 'the storage facility was inspected' must be replaced with 'inspected the storage facility'. Hence, 'inspected the storage facility' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.69.(d) (2) of the delay

'For' is used with the verb 'apologise' to indicate the reason for apology. Similarly, in the given sentence, 'delay' is the reason for apologizing. Hence, 'for the delay' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.70.(d) (4) was calculated using outdated parameters

In the given sentence, 'several projections' is a plural subject that will take a plural helping verb. Therefore, 'was' must be replaced with 'were'. Hence, 'were calculated using outdated parameters' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.71.(a) (1)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", the verb must match the noun (subject) in number. Here, the noun "guidelines" is plural, so it must take a plural verb. Hence, "If the guidelines are enforced strictly" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.72.(a) (1) The coordinator carefully explained about the revised procedures Verbs like "explain, mention, discuss, emphasise, enter, accompany, etc," do not take any preposition when used with an object. Therefore, 'about' must be removed. Hence, "The coordinator carefully explained the revised procedures" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.73.(b) (2) a blunder mistake

'Blunder mistake' is a superfluous expression. 'Blunder' means a huge mistake. So, we cannot use 'mistake' and 'blunder' together. Therefore, 'mistake' will be removed. Hence, 'a blunder' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.74.(d) (4)

The word "confusion" is an uncountable noun and does not have a plural form. 'Much' is used with uncountable nouns, not 'many'.

Hence, "so much confusion" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.75.(b) (2) - many important informations

The word 'information' is an uncountable noun and does not have a plural form. It should be used as 'many pieces of important information'. Hence, 'many pieces of important information' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.76.(c) (3)

The word "sale" (singular) usually refers to a single transaction or act of selling, while "sales" (plural) refers to overall revenue, business performance, or multiple transactions. Hence, "in order to boost its sales" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.77.(c) (3)

When using "not only ... but also", the structure should be parallel. In the given sentence, "her dedication" is a noun phrase, so "her innovative ideas" should also be a noun phrase. Therefore, "her innovative ideas" is the most appropriate correction.

Sol.78.(a) (1) - He seldom if never

'Seldom if never' should be replaced with 'seldom if ever'. The correct phrase is 'seldom if ever', meaning very rarely or almost never. 'Seldom if never' is grammatically incorrect. Hence, 'He seldom if ever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.79.(b) (2)

The phrase "neither of" is always singular, so it must be followed by a singular verb. Hence, "applicants has submitted" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.80.(b) (2) more effective than the previous coach

In the given sentence, the comparison is between the training programmes, not the coaches. Therefore, 'the previous coach' must be replaced with 'that of the previous coach'. Hence, 'more effective than that of the previous coach' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.81.(c) (3)

According to the 'Subject-Verb Agreement Rule', a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the main subject is "The unique challenges," which is plural. Therefore, the verb should also be plural ("make") instead of singular ("makes"). Hence, "make its successful completion" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.82.(c) (3) - were evident from their delayed return

The subject of the sentence is the noun clause "That the expedition faced unforeseen challenges in the treacherous mountain terrain". As there is only one noun clause, the subject is singular. Therefore, the verb should be singular 'was', not plural 'were'. Hence, 'was evident from their delayed return' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-Sol.83.(b) of murder after (2)

The verb "charged" is followed by the preposition "with" when we talk about accusing someone of a crime. Hence, 'charged with murder' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.84.(b) (2) - across the riverbank

'Across' must be replaced with 'along'. 'Across' is used when moving from one side to the other. 'Along' is used to indicate the movement next to something long such as a road or a river. The given sentence talks about walking beside the riverbank. Hence, 'along the riverbank' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.85.(d) a FIR. (4)

The article 'an' is used before the words starting with a vowel sound. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'FIR' starts with a vowel sound. Hence, 'to lodge an FIR' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.86.(b) a furniture (2)

'Furniture' is uncountable, so it cannot take the indefinite article 'a'. Rather, we use words like 'some' or 'a piece of'. Hence, 'some furniture' or 'a piece of furniture' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.87.(a) The information are (1)

'Information' is an uncountable noun and we always use a singular verb with uncountable nouns. Therefore, 'are' must be replaced with 'is'. Hence, 'The information is' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.88.(b) were excited (2)

'Everyone/each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Therefore, singular verbs will be used with them. 'Were' must be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was excited' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.89.(a) She speaks very soft (1)

The given sentence needs an adverb, 'softly', to modify the verb 'speaks', not the adjective 'soft'. Hence, 'She speaks very softly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.90.(c) and a owl (3)

The article 'an' is used before words starting with a vowel sound. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'owl' starts with a vowel sound. Hence, 'and an owl' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.91.(b) strongly reply (2)

The given sentence needs an adjective 'strong' to describe the noun 'reply', not the adverb 'strongly'. Hence, 'strong reply' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.92.(a) He repeated again (1)

In the given sentence, the use of the word 'again' is superfluous and should be removed. The verb 'repeated' already means said again. Hence, 'He repeated' is the most appropriate usage.

Sol.93.(c) to a new solution (3)

The phrasal verb "to come up with" means to produce or suggest an idea or solution. The use of 'to' is incorrect here. Therefore, 'to' must be removed. Hence, 'a new solution' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.94.(b) the mistake out (2)

In part (2), 'out' must be removed because it is already part of the phrasal verb 'point out'. Hence, 'the mistake' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.95.(b) poems and recite (2)

In the given sentence, 'He' is a singular subject that will take 'recites' as a singular verb. Hence, 'poems and recites' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.96.(c) a great dance (3)

In the given sentence, the word 'singer' refers to a person who sings songs. The conjunction 'and' is used to connect the words 'singer' and 'dance', which refer to the pronoun 'she'. Therefore, 'dance' must be replaced with the noun 'dancer', which means a person who dances. Hence, 'a great dancer' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.97.(c) in much details (3)

'In detail' is the correct phrase, which means including or considering all the information about something. Hence, 'in detail' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.98.(a) The dog bark (1)

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, 'bark' must be replaced with the past form 'barked' to indicate simple past tense. Hence, 'The dog barked' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.99.(c) examined every entries before making (3)

'Everyone/each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Therefore, 'entries' must be replaced with the singular noun 'entry'. Hence, 'examined every entry before making' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.100.(c) a officer in this (3)

The article 'an' is used before the words starting with a vowel sound. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'officer' starts with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an officer in this' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.101.(b) expensiver than (2)

'More expensive' is the correct comparative degree of 'expensive'. Hence, 'more expensive than' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.102.(d) lines of poetries

The word 'poetry' is generally used in the singular form. Therefore, the use of 'poetries' is incorrect. Hence, 'lines of poetry' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.103.(d) in the unfolding scandal. (2)

'On' is a fixed preposition used with the verb 'comment'. Hence, 'comment on the unfolding scandal' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.104.(a) The train will be reached (1)

Future perfect tense is used to denote an action that will have been completed before a specific time in the future. 'Will have + V₃' is the correct grammatical structure of future perfect tense. Therefore, 'will be reached' must be replaced with 'will have reached'. Hence, 'The train will have reached' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.105..(b) Anita's style is more simple

'Simpler' is the correct comparative degree of 'simple'. Hence, "Anita's style is simpler" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.106.(b) most simplest method (2)

'Simplest' is the correct superlative degree of 'simple'. Therefore, 'most' must be removed. Hence, 'simplest method' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.107.(b) she was the faster (2)

'Superlative degree' denotes the form of an adjective or adverb that expresses the highest or a very high degree of a quality in a person or thing. For example: highest, greatest, tallest, best, etc. 'Fastest' is the superlative degree of 'fast'. Hence, 'she was the fastest' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.108.(b) since ten years (2)

'For' is used with fixed numerals. For example:- two days, three months, five years, etc. Hence, 'for ten years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.109.(c) and go out (3)

The given sentence is in the simple past tense, therefore the past form of the verb, 'went out' will be used. Hence, 'and went out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.110.(a) A umbrella (1)

The article 'an' is used before the words starting with a vowel sound. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'umbrella' starts with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an umbrella' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.111.(c) since many years (3)

'Since' is used with a specific point of time in the past, while 'for' is used with a period of time. 'Many years' denotes a period, so 'since' should be replaced with 'for'. Hence, 'for many years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.112.(c) already leaves (3)

If two actions took place in the past, then the first action must be in the Past Perfect tense (had + V₃) and the second action must be in the Simple Past tense (V₂). As per the given sentence, the train had left before we arrived. Hence, 'had already left(V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.113.(a) will look down (1)

'Look down' means to consider someone inferior and less worthy of respect. 'Look into' means to examine the facts about a problem or situation. The given sentence talks about examining the issue. Hence, 'will look into' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.114.(c) when they are startled (3)

The main clause "The children were playing" is in the past continuous tense. The action of being startled happened in the past. Therefore, 'are' must be replaced with 'were'. Hence, 'when they were startled' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.115.(a) The driver stop (1)

The sentence is in the simple past tense, so the verb should be in the past form. Therefore, 'stop' should be replaced with 'stopped'. Hence, 'The driver stopped' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.116.(c) C. because he is not answering his phone now.

As per the given sentence, the person is not answering his phone now but he is believed to be very busy last week. This does not seem logical. The person was busy in the past, therefore he was not answering his phone. Thus, past continuous tense (Singular Sub. + was + V_{ing}) will be used and 'now' will be removed. Hence, 'because he was not answering his phone' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.117.(c) and were displayed in the museum (3)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, "The painting" is a singular subject that will take 'was' as a singular verb. Hence, "and was displayed in the museum" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.118.(c) is now ready for analysis (3)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject of the sentence is 'samples', which is plural. Therefore, the verb should also be in the plural form. 'Is' should be replaced with 'are'. Hence, 'are now ready for analysis' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.119.(b) on

'On' is used to indicate the presence of something on a surface. 'Into' is used to indicate movement towards the inside. The given sentence talks about movement towards the inside of the lake. Hence, 'into' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.120.(a) Each students in the science club (1)

'Everyone/ each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Therefore, 'students' should be replaced with the singular noun 'student'. Hence, 'Each student in the science club' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.121.(c) were praised by the cultural association (3)

In the given sentence, 'The artist' is a singular subject that will take a singular verb. Therefore, 'were' must be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was praised by the cultural association' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.122.(c) understand the topic without difficulty (3)

The first part of the sentence is in the simple past tense, which is also the main clause. Therefore, the second part of the sentence should also be in the past tense & 'understand' should be replaced with 'understood(V₂)'. Hence, 'understood the topic without difficulty' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.123.(b) on

'On' must be replaced with 'at'. The phrasal verb 'look at' means to examine or check something carefully. The given sentence talks about reviewing the document to verify the final instructions. Hence, 'looked at the document' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.124.(b) to hear from you (2)

The phrase 'look forward to' is always followed by a gerund (V-ing). Therefore, 'to hear' should be replaced with 'to hearing'. Hence, 'to hearing from you' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.125.(d) was

In the given sentence, 'they' is a plural pronoun that will take 'were' as a plural verb. Therefore, 'was' must be replaced with 'were'. Hence, 'were' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.126.(c) is still unclear to many candidates (3)

According to the 'Subject-Verb Agreement Rule', a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject 'instructions' is plural, so it must take a plural verb. Therefore, 'is' should be replaced with 'are'. Hence, 'are still unclear to many candidates' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.127.(b) into

'Into' must be replaced with 'through'. The phrasal verb 'walk through' means to go over or explain something step by step. The given sentence talks about checking or reviewing the instructions. Hence, 'through' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.128.(b) contains several inaccuracies (2)

According to the 'Subject-Verb Agreement Rule', a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject of the sentence is 'The meeting minutes', where 'minutes' is a plural noun. Therefore, the verb must also be plural. The singular verb 'contains' must be replaced with the plural verb 'contain'. Hence, 'contain several inaccuracies' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.129.(b) is forgetting

The word 'usually' indicates a habitual action, so the verb should be in the simple present tense. Therefore, 'is forgetting' should be replaced with 'forgets'. Hence, 'forgets' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.130.(c) an

The article 'an' is used before vowel sounds, while 'a' is used before consonant sounds. The word 'unique' begins with a consonant sound. Therefore, 'an' must be replaced with 'a'. Hence, 'a unique workshop' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.131.(c) to

We use the preposition 'on' when referring to days or specific times. Therefore, 'to' must be replaced with 'on'. Hence, 'on' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.132.(c) (3) - lend support

According to the 'Subject-Verb Agreement Rule', a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject 'argument' is singular, so the verb must also be in the singular form. The plural verb 'lend' must be replaced with the singular verb 'lends'. Hence, 'lends support' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.133.(c) (3) - was available

"Neither...nor / Either...or" is a correlative conjunction pair used for two subjects, and the verb agrees with the subject closest to it. This is known as the rule of proximity. In this sentence, the subject nearest to the verb is 'the team leads', which is plural. So, the verb must be plural as well. Therefore, 'was available' should be replaced with 'were available'. Hence, 'were available' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.134.(d) (4) - will be sent to all members.

When the phrase 'By the time' is used with simple present tense, future perfect tense is used in the 2nd clause. In the second clause, 'the final draft' is the subject, which receives the action rather than performs it. Therefore, passive voice structure will be used. 'Will have been + V₃' is the correct passive structure for future perfect tense. Hence, 'will have been sent' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.135.(b) (2) - each student submits

After verbs like 'recommend, suggest, insist, demand', the base form(V1) of the verb is used in the present tense even if the subject is plural. Therefore, 'submits' must be replaced with 'submit'. Hence, 'each student submit' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.136.(d) (4) - without stating the concerns out.

'Out' is not required in this sentence, therefore it must be removed. Hence, 'without stating the concerns' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.137.(c) (3) - but could not draw on

'Draw on' must be replaced with 'draw out'. The phrasal verb 'draw out' means to elicit or extract information, which fits the context of identifying the main issues raised by employees. The given sentence talks about bringing out or identifying the key concerns. Hence, 'could not draw out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.138.(d) (4) - without pointing any issue out.

'Out' is not required in this sentence, therefore it must be removed. Hence, 'without pointing any issue' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.139.(c) (3) - but could not figure up

Sol.140.(d) (4)

The given sentence is in the simple past tense, therefore the past form of the verb will be used. 'malfunctions' must be replaced with 'malfunctioned'. Hence, 'malfunctioned during the final stage' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.141.(a) (1) - The document was replete by errors

'With' is the correct preposition to use here instead of 'by'. The expression 'replete with' means full of or filled with something. In the given sentence, the document is described as being full of errors. Hence, 'The document was replete with errors' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.142.(b) (2) - remained effective since three years

'Since' is used to denote a point of time, which indicates the starting point of an action. 'For' is used for a fixed period of time (countable), such as 2 years, 3 months, or 4 days. In the given sentence, the phrase 'three years' indicates a duration, not a starting point. Therefore, 'since' must be replaced with 'for'. Hence, 'remained effective for three years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.143. (c) (3) - unexpectedly creating

The given sentence needs a finite verb to show what the proposal actually did. The word 'creating' is a present participle and cannot function as the main verb of the clause without an auxiliary verb. Therefore, 'creating' must be replaced with a finite verb such as 'created'. Hence, 'unexpectedly created' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.144.(b) (2) - dancer who

'One of + plural noun' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, the singular noun 'dancer' must be replaced with the plural noun 'dancers'. Hence, 'one of the best dancers who' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.145.(a) (1) - Had they been understanding

The given sentence is an example of the third conditional sentence and 'had + subject + V_3 ... subject + would have + V_3 ' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Therefore, 'been understanding' must be replaced with the third form 'understood'. Hence, 'Had they understood' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.146.(d) (4) - structure and coherent.

The conjunction 'and' is used to join two similar parts of speech. In the given sentence, 'structure and coherent' functions as the object of the verb 'missed', and the object must be a noun. 'Structure' is already a noun, so we need to replace the adjective 'coherent' with its noun form 'coherence' to maintain parallelism. Hence, 'structure and coherence' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.147.(a) (1) - The company tried to bring over

'Bring over' must be replaced with 'bring in'. The phrasal verb 'bring in' means to introduce or introduce something new. The given sentence talks about introducing new or fresh ideas to improve customer engagement strategies. Hence, 'tried to bring in fresh ideas' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.148.(b) smarter

When there is a comparison between two persons or things, the comparative degree is used. But the given sentence compares one applicant with all the applicants, which means the comparison is made within a group of more than two. Therefore, the superlative degree 'smartest' will be used instead of 'smarter'. Hence, 'smartest' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.149.(b) arrive

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, the past form of the verb (arrived) will be used. Hence, 'arrived' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.150.(a) senior than

There are some words that imply comparison but do not take 'than'. Rather, 'to' is used with them. For example:- superior to, inferior to, prior to, senior to, junior to, elder to, etc. Hence, 'senior to me' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.151.(d) since five years

'For' is used for a definite period of time. For example:- five years, six months, ten days, etc. 'Since' is used to denote a time in the past when something started. Hence, 'for five years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.152.(b) Kalidas is the Shakespeare of India.

Generally, we do not use any article before proper nouns. However, when we compare a person or place to another person/place that is renowned for its greatness, we use the definite article before them. Similarly, Shakespeare is a renowned poet and the given sentence compares Kalidas with Shakespeare. Therefore, the article 'the' is used before 'shakespeare'.

Sol.153.(b) have submitted the final report to the board (3)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb. In the given sentence, 'teacher' is a singular subject that will take 'has' as a singular verb. Hence, 'has submitted the final report to the board' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.154.(b) were given a welcome kit

'Everyone/each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Singular verbs are used with them. Therefore, 'were' will be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was given a welcome kit' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.155.(b) were praised widely for their clarity and enthusiasm (3) 'One + of + plural noun + singular verb' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'were' should be replaced with the singular verb 'was'. Hence, 'was praised widely for their clarity and enthusiasm' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.156.(c) was present

"Neither...nor/ Either...or" is a conjunction pair that is used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. This is called the rule of proximity. 'Teachers' is the nearest subject and its plural. Therefore, the plural verb 'were' should be used. Hence, 'were present' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.157.(b) get lost when we drove back

We generally use a gerund(V_{ing}) after a preposition('from' in the given sentence). Therefore, 'get' will be replaced with 'getting'. Hence, "getting lost when we drove back" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.158.(d) inside

In the given sentence, the word "inside" is incorrect because the correct preposition should be "in". We usually say "in the drawer", not "inside the drawer" when referring to location in everyday English.

Sol.159.(d) his promises

The pronoun "One" is indefinite, so the corresponding possessive pronoun should also be indefinite 'one's', not "his." Therefore, the correct sentence should be 'One must keep one's promises'.

Sol.160.(a) leave much

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'The behaviour' is a singular subject that will take 'leaves' as a singular verb. Hence, 'leaves much' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.161.(b) is reliable

When using "Neither...nor" with a plural noun, the verb should agree with the nearest subject. Here, the nearest subject is "his brothers" (plural), so the correct verb should be are.

Sol.162.(d) saw

The sentence uses the present perfect tense ("He has..."). In the present perfect tense, the auxiliary verb "has" for the third person singular is followed by the past participle of the main verb. The past participle of "see" is "seen," not "saw." Hence, "He has seen" is the most appropriate form.

Sol.163.(b) junior than

The word "junior" is followed by the preposition "to," not "than," when making a comparison. The correct phrase should be "junior to me."

Sol.164.(b) more smarter

The word "smarter" is already the comparative form of "smart," so adding "more" is redundant. Therefore, the correct form is "She is smarter than her sister."

Sol.165.(a) to

The verb "arrive" is not followed by "to". The correct preposition is "at" for a specific place. Hence, 'arrive at' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.166.(d) you start

The phrase "It is high time" is followed by the simple past tense, even when referring to a present or future action. This structure expresses that something should have already happened or should begin immediately. Therefore, "you start" should be "you started."

Sol.167.(a) is willing to join

"Neither...nor/ Either...or" is a conjunction pair that is used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. This is called the rule of proximity. 'His friends' is a plural subject that will take 'are' as a plural verb. Hence, 'are willing to join' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.168.(a) cope up with

'Cope up with' is an incorrect verb. 'Cope with' is the correct phrasal verb, which means to deal with a difficult situation. Hence, 'cope with' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.169.(c) most

The given sentence needs a comparative degree to make a comparison between the safety of this route and the highway. 'Safer' is the correct comparative degree. Therefore, 'most' must be removed. Hence, 'most' is the incorrect part.

Sol.170.(a) has arrested

'Police' is a plural noun, therefore a plural verb should be used with it. 'Has' must be replaced with the plural verb 'have'. Hence, 'have arrested' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.171.(c) a good advice

'Advice' is an uncountable noun, so we cannot use the indefinite article 'a' before it. Rather we use the phrase 'a piece of'. Hence, 'a piece of good advice' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.172.(b) was present

If the paired conjunction “neither...nor” is used, the verb agrees with the subject closest to it. Here, the nearest subject is the plural noun “students,” so the verb should be “were.” Therefore, the correct sentence is “Neither the teacher nor the students were present”

Sol.173.(c) angry upon

The correct preposition to use with “angry” when referring to someone is “with”, not “upon.” Therefore, the correct sentence is “She is angry with me”.

Sol.174.(d) I returned back

In the given sentence, the verb “returned” already implies coming back, so adding “back” is redundant. Therefore, the correct sentence is “I returned from Mumbai last week”.

Sol.175.(b) It is an honour to be here.

The word “honour” begins with a vowel sound, so it requires the article “an.” Hence, option (b) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.176.(b) him for

“On” is the fixed preposition used with the verb “congratulate” to indicate the achievement someone is being congratulated for. Therefore, “him on” is the correct form.

Sol.177.(a) he had arrived

After “No sooner,” the sentence must use inversion, meaning the auxiliary verb comes before the subject. Therefore, “had he arrived” is the correct form.

Sol.178.(b) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.179.(d) made

The correct verb to use with ‘shower’ is “have/take”. For example:- take a shower / have a shower. Past form ‘took’ will be used here. Hence, ‘took a quick shower’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.180.(b) more

In the given sentence, the word “highest” is already a superlative, so using “more” is redundant. Therefore, the correct sentence is “Mount Everest is the highest peak in the world.”

Sol.181.(a) to listen attentively

The verb ‘advise’ is usually followed by an object before the infinitive (to + verb). The correct structure is: advised + object + to + verb. Therefore, the correct sentence should be ‘The teacher advised the students to listen attentively.’

Sol.182.(a) graceful

In the given sentence, the word “graceful” is used as an adjective, but to describe the verb “danced,” we need an adverb. Therefore, the correct word should be “gracefully.”

Sol.183.(a) singer in the city in the prize distribution function.

“One of the + Superlative degree adjective + Plural Subject” is grammatically the correct structure. For example :- one of the best men, one of the greatest kings, one of the worst phones, etc. Hence, ‘She is one of the best singers in the city’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.184.(b)

The correct preposition here is ‘at’, which is used to refer to a specific event or occasion. In the given sentence, the prize distribution function is an event. Hence, ‘at the prize distribution function.’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.185.(b) to win

The verb ‘succeed’ is always followed by the preposition ‘in’. We generally use a gerund(V_{ing}) after any preposition. Hence, ‘in winning(V_{ing})’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.186.(c) fastly

The word ‘fastly’ is incorrect. In the given sentence, an adverb is required, so the adverb ‘fast’ should be used instead of ‘fastly’. Hence, ‘fast’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.187.(a) laugh on

‘Laugh at someone’ is the correct phrase, which means to make fun of someone. Hence, ‘laugh at others’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.188.(d) have gone for lunch.

According to the “Subject-Verb Agreement Rule”, a singular subject always takes a singular verb. In the given sentence, ‘manager’ is a singular subject that will take ‘has’ as a singular verb. Hence, ‘has gone for lunch’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.189.(b) were

‘One of + plural noun + singular verb’ is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, ‘were’ must be replaced with the singular verb ‘was’. Hence, ‘was’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.190.(d) a

The article ‘an’ is used before words that begin with a vowel sound. In the given sentence, the word ‘honest’ starts with a vowel sound, so the article ‘an’ will be used before it. Hence, ‘adopted an honest approach’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.191. (b) comprises of

The verb ‘comprises’ does not take the preposition ‘of’. Therefore, ‘of’ must be removed. Hence, ‘comprises five chapters’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.192.(b) between his five friends

‘Between’ is replaced by ‘among’ because ‘among’ is used when referring to more than two people, while ‘between’ is used for two entities only. In the given sentence, the sweets are divided among five friends. Hence, ‘sweets among his five friends’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.193.(b) are

“Neither...nor” is a conjunction pair used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. The subject ‘Neither’ is singular, so it should be followed by the singular verb ‘is’ instead of ‘are’. Hence, the correct sentence is “Neither of the two brothers is trustworthy.”

Sol.194.(d) afraid from

The correct preposition after the adjective “afraid” is “of.” Hence, ‘afraid of the dark’ is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.195.(b) No error.

Sol.196.(d) are arriving soon

The subject “The father” is singular, and the phrase “with his sons” is only an accompanying detail. Therefore, the verb should be singular. Hence, “is arriving soon” is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.197.(a) to hung till death

The verb “ordered” is followed by the base form of the verb after “to.” In the given sentence, “hung” should be replaced with “hang.” Therefore, “to hang till death” is the correct phrase.

Sol.198.(c) is married with

'To' is a fixed preposition used with the verb 'marry.' Therefore, 'is married to' is the correct form.

Sol.199.(b) drowned

The verb "drown" is used for humans or animals, not for ships. Therefore, the correct sentence is "The ship sank in the sea."

Sol.200.(a) to accompany

In the given sentence, the verb "insist" is correctly followed by "on" + gerund (V-ing form). Therefore, the correct sentence is "she insisted on accompanying me."

Sol.201.(c) When we reached the station, the train had already left.

The given sentence demonstrates the correct use of the Past Perfect Tense for an action that occurred before another action in the past.

Sol.202.(d) in their opinions

The word "jury" is a collective noun and is treated as singular. Therefore, the correct sentence is "The jury was divided in its opinions."

Sol.203.(d) He has come

The present perfect tense "has come" is used for actions that have a connection to the present and is not used with a specific past time expression like "yesterday." Therefore, the correct sentence is "He came yesterday."

Sol.204.(c) since five years

'Since' is used to indicate a starting point in time. To indicate a duration of time, we use 'for.' Therefore, 'for five years' is the correct form.

Sol.205.(d) when the guests have arrived

The given sentence is in the simple past tense, therefore the past form of the verb will be used. 'have arrived' must be replaced with 'arrived (V₂)'. Hence, 'when the guests arrived' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.206.(d) He went to college on a train.

The correct preposition to use with modes of transport like "train" is "on." Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.207.(d) No less than

"No less than" is used for uncountable nouns. But in the given sentence, "students" is a countable noun. Therefore, the correct phrase is "no fewer than."

Sol.208.(c) from the stairs

The correct preposition to use when someone falls from a higher level, such as stairs, is typically "down the stairs" or "off the stairs." The old man fell down the stairs, not "fell down from the stairs." The word "from" is unnecessary here. Therefore, the correct form is "fell down the stairs."

Sol.209.(a) have visited

The phrase 'last month' indicates simple past tense. Therefore, 'have visited' must be replaced with the past form of the verb 'visited'. Hence, 'visited' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.210.(b) know to swim

When we talk about knowing or learning an activity, the correct structure is "know / learn + how + to + V₁". Hence, "know how to swim" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.211.(d) better in mathematics

"Good + at + something / doing something" is the correct grammatical structure. 'Better' is the comparative degree of 'good'. Hence, 'better at mathematics' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.212.(d) tea than

'To' is a fixed preposition used after the verb 'prefer'. Hence, 'tea to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.213.(b) are too good

'The news' is a singular noun so it will take the singular verb 'is'. Hence, 'is too good' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.214.(b) The sceneries

'Scenery' is an uncountable noun and its plural form does not exist. Hence, 'The scenery' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.215.(b) with her mother

The verb 'resemble' means to have some kind of similarities. However, we do not use the preposition 'with' after the verb 'resemble'. Therefore, 'with' must be removed. Hence, 'resembles her mother' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.216.(d) that where

'That' is not used in reported speech after the verb 'asked'. Therefore, 'that' must be removed. Hence, 'asked me where' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.217.(b) with

We do not use the preposition 'with / to' after the verb 'married' active voice. Therefore, 'with' must be removed. Hence, 'married a doctor' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.218.(c) were present

When subjects are joined by 'as well as', the verb agrees with the first subject only. In the given sentence, the first subject is 'He' (singular), so the correct verb should be 'was', not 'were'. Hence, 'was present' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.219.(d) have increased

"The number of + plural noun + singular verb" is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'have' must be replaced with 'has'. Hence, 'has increased' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.220.(a) me to enter

'From' is a fixed preposition used after the verb 'prevent / prohibit / refrain / abstain'. We generally use a gerund (V_{ing}) after any preposition. Hence, "me from entering (V_{ing})" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.221.(b) were playing

Collective nouns are generally considered singular and we use a singular verb with them when all the members of the group are acting together rather than individually. Therefore, 'were' must be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was playing' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.222.(a) hung

'Hung' must be replaced with 'hanged'. The verb 'hang' has two third forms. 'Hanged' is used when we talk about the death penalty by a loop around the neck. 'Hung' is used when an object (clothes / painting) is suspended in the air with the support of a string or hook. The given sentence talks about punishing thief for his crimes. Hence, 'hanged' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.223.(a) have given

When a decision is taken unanimously by a team, jury or a committee, a singular verb is used. Similarly, in the given sentence, the committee has given a single decision. Therefore, 'have' must be replaced with the singular verb 'has'. Hence, 'has given' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.224.(a) and to generate a distinct experience

According to the 'Rule of Parallelism', two or more verbs must be in the same form if they are connected with one another. Similarly, in the given sentence, three verbs are connected to the noun 'ways'. 'To generate' will be replaced with 'generating' to match the form of 'knowing' & 'learning'. Hence, option (a) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.225.(b) but nobody is listening

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, 'is' must be replaced with the helping verb 'was' of past continuous tense. Hence, 'but nobody was listening' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.226.(d) You may discussing

'Modal verbs' are auxiliary verbs(also called helping verbs) like can, will, could, shall, must, would, might, and should. However, after a modal verb, we generally use the first form of the verb (V₁). Hence, 'may discuss(V₁)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.227.(b) using the recently discovering technology

The given sentence talks about using the technology that has already been discovered for taking a trip to Northern India. Past participle is used to denote a completed action. 'Discovering' must be replaced with the past participle form 'discovered'. Hence, 'using the recently discovered technology' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.228.(d) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.229.(d) propagate in

'In' must be replaced with 'through'. 'Through' is used to indicate the method or means of doing something. The given sentence states that the release of seeds was not the means of propagation. Hence, 'propagate through' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.230.(d) to offer a plethora of Present participle(V_{ing}) is used to provide additional information about something, especially after the comma at the end of a sentence. 'To offer' must be replaced with 'offering'. Hence, 'offering a plethora of' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.231.(d) She use to eat

'Used to' is a semi-modal that is used to indicate a past habit. The given sentence talks about her habit of eating a lot of chocolates when she was a child. Therefore, 'use to' will be replaced with 'used to'. Hence, 'She used to eat' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.232.(a) Most than half of

Comparative degree is used with 'than' to make a comparison between two persons or things. 'More' is used to form a comparative degree. 'Most' must be replaced with 'more'. Hence, 'More than half of' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.233.(c) a meeting sorting out

Infinitive (to + V₁) is used to indicate the purpose of or reason for something. As per the given sentence, it was the purpose of the meeting to sort out the issues of the NPAs of the bank. Hence, 'a meeting to sort(V₁) out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.234.(b) has a negatively effect

The given sentence needs an adjective 'negative' to describe the noun 'effect', not the adverb 'negatively'. Hence, 'has a negative effect' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.235.(a) Akasa Air planning to acquire

Present continuous tense is used to describe an action that is currently in progress. 'Singular subject + is + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for this sentence. Hence, 'Akasa Air is planning to acquire' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.236.(c) I was with the impression

'Under the impression' is used when a person thinks that something is true, but in reality it is not. 'With' must be replaced with 'under'. Hence, 'I was under the impression' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.237.(a) in a deserting quarry near New York.

Present participle (V_{ing}) is used to denote an action in progress at the same time as another action. Past participle(V₃) is used to denote an action already completed. The quarry had been deserted before the ground-breaking discovery. Hence, 'in a deserted quarry near New York' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.238.(c) don't they?

According to the "Question Tag rule", if the statement is positive, the question tag will be negative & vice-versa. However, the sentence and the question tag must be in the same tense. Similarly, the given sentence is negative so the question tag will be positive(do). Hence, 'do they?' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.239.(d) it be much quicker

Simple future tense is used to indicate an action that will happen in the future. The given sentence talks about reaching quickly in the future when the road is finished. 'Will + V₁(be)' is the correct grammatical structure for this sentence. Hence, 'it will be much quicker' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.240.(b) has done everything

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore 'has' must be replaced with the helping verb 'had' of past perfect tense. Hence, 'had done everything' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.241.(a) I, you and she

If two or more singular pronouns are used together, the correct order is 231 according to the person they denote. Therefore, the correct order for the given sentence is You(2nd person), she(3rd person) and I(1st person). Hence, 'You, she and I' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.242.(b) five thousand rupees all together

'All together' must be replaced with 'altogether', which means totally. Hence, 'five thousand rupees altogether' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.243.(b) on

'On' is used to indicate a specific occasion or day. 'During' is used to indicate a specific period of time. Similarly, 'pandemic' is a specific period of time. Hence, 'during' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.244.(a) will plant last January

The phrase 'last January' indicates the use of simple past tense. 'Will plant' must be replaced with the past form 'planted'. Hence, 'planted last January' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.245.(c) D- train accident is fairly less

'Less' must be replaced with 'low' as there is no comparison in this sentence. Hence, 'train accident is fairly low' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.246.(b) worse

'Worse' must be replaced with 'the worse'. When change in one thing causes the change in the other and two comparative degrees are used to indicate this relationship, it is called successive comparison. Article 'the' is used before both the comparative degrees. Hence, 'the worse' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.247.(d) to the inspector

'To' must be replaced with 'at' as we use 'at' with 'glance' for a person. Hence, 'at the inspector' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.248.(d) B - and shouted, "Here the book lies

'That' is a relative pronoun which takes a noun or pronoun as its antecedent. In the given sentence, 'the book' is the antecedent, which will be used before 'that'. Hence, and shouted, "Here lies the book" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.249.(d) experience enough for the post

'Enough' is an adjective which describes the noun 'experience', therefore 'enough' will be used before 'experience'. Hence, 'enough experience for the job' is the most appropriate answer.

There is no error in the given sentence. Hence, the sentence given in option (c) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.251.(a) about

'For' is the fixed preposition used after the verb 'search'. Hence, 'for' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.252.(d) good in

The structure 'good + at + V_{ing}' is used to show that you are very skilful and clever at doing something. Hence, 'good at' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.253.(b) The Supreme Court set away

'Set away' must be replaced with 'set aside'. The phrasal verb 'set aside' means to deprive of legal effect because it has been proved wrong. The given sentence states that the Supreme Court set aside the verdict of the High Court. Hence, 'The Supreme Court set aside' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.254.(c) Malini to hand down

'Hand down' must be replaced with 'hand out'. The phrasal verb 'hand out' means to give a slip or document to someone. The given sentence talks about giving all the payment slips. Hence, 'Malini to hand out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.255.(d) as more intelligent as

'As + adjective/adverb + as' is a comparative structure in which the adjective or the adverb is always in the positive degree. Therefore, 'more' will be replaced with 'much'. Hence, 'as much intelligent as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.256.(d) at airport to receive

Article 'the' is used to refer to a specific or particular noun. 'Airport' given in the sentence is specific as the person is waiting there. Hence, 'at the airport to receive' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.257.(c) was at your liking

"To one's liking" is the correct phrase, which means appealing or enjoyable to someone. Therefore, 'at your liking' must be replaced with 'to your liking'. Hence, 'was to your liking' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.258.(c) him not

'Not' must be removed from this sentence. 'Forbade' is the past form of 'forbid', which means to not allow someone to do something. The use of 'not' with 'forbade' is superfluous. Hence, 'forbade him to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.259.(d) He climbed of

'Climbed of' must be replaced with 'climbed up'. 'Up' is used to indicate upwards movement. Hence, 'he climbed up' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.260.(d) had wondering

The given sentence is an example of present continuous tense and the subject 'Sam and Teena' is plural. 'Plural Subject + are + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'are wondering' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.261.(c) my favourite book

'One of + plural noun' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, the plural noun 'books' will be used. Hence, 'my favourite books' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.262.(c) I wish I had eraser to erase all the mistakes in my life.

Article 'an' will be used before the noun 'eraser' as it starts with a vowel sound. Hence, the correct sentence is- 'I wish I had an eraser to erase all the mistakes in my life.'

Sol.263.(d) in addition with

'In addition to' is the correct phrase. Hence, 'in addition to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.264.(d) He don't like spicy food.

'The given sentence is in the simple present tense and 'Singular Subject(He) + does + not + V₁' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, the correct sentence is- 'He doesn't like spicy food.'

Sol.265.(c) The intricate dance of neurotransmitters in the synaptic cleft plays a crucial role in neural communication.

'Dance' and 'cleft' mentioned in the sentence are specific and we generally use the definite article 'the' before a specific or particular noun. The noun 'role' is not specific and we generally use an indefinite article before a non-specific noun. The word 'crucial' starts with a consonant sound, therefore, article 'a' will be used before it. Hence, the sentence given in option (c) is correct.

Sol.266.(c) knuckle up really seriously

'Knuckle up' must be replaced with 'knuckle down'. The phrasal verb 'knuckle down' means to put in serious effort. The given sentence states that he will have to knuckle down really seriously if he wants to crack the upcoming deal. Hence, 'knuckle down really seriously' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.267.(b) A lot of books and notes placed in order look fascinating.

'A lot of books and notes' is a plural subject that will take 'look' as a plural verb. The phrase 'in order' means arranged systematically. We can not use the superlative degree of 'fascinating' as there is no comparison with any other thing. Hence, the sentence given in option (b) is grammatically correct.

Sol.268.(d) unpardonably lately in the morning

'Lately' must be replaced with 'late'. 'Late' means after the usual or expected time. 'Lately' means in the recent times. The given sentence is talking about waking up after the expected time in the morning. Hence, 'unpardonably late in the morning' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.269.(a) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.270.(c) Gita got onto

'Got onto' must be replaced with 'got into'. The phrasal verb 'got into' means became interested in a subject or activity. The given sentence talks about the interest of Gita in the book she was reading. Hence, 'Gita got into' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.271.(c) the crisis will soon blow away

'Blow away' must be replaced with 'blow over'. The phrasal verb 'blow over' means to pass by or to end. The given sentence states that the crisis will soon end. Hence, 'the crisis will soon blow over' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.272.(c)

I am observing your mischievous activities for half an hour. Present perfect continuous tense will be used in this sentence as a fixed period of time is mentioned with the preposition 'for'. Therefore, 'am observing' must be replaced with 'have been observing'. Hence, the correct sentence is - 'I have been observing your mischievous activities for half an hour.'

Sol.273.(c) So my mother is old than my uncle

'Old' must be replaced with the comparative degree 'older' as the given sentence compares the age of mother and uncle. Hence, 'So my mother is older than my uncle' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.274.(c) allergic with peanuts

'To' is the fixed preposition used after the adjective 'allergic'. Hence, 'allergic to peanuts' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.275.(a) They have an information about the event.

'Information' is an uncountable noun and we generally do not use indefinite articles (a/an) with uncountable nouns. Therefore, 'an' will be removed. Hence, the correct sentence is- 'They have information about the event.'

Sol.276.(c) Whenever she is coming

'Whenever' is used when one action is always followed by another action. Simple present tense is used with 'whenever'. 'She' is a singular subject that will take 'comes' as a singular verb. Hence, 'Whenever she comes' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.277.(d) She was not allowed to enter the hotel as her clothes were dirty.

'Singular Subject + was + V₃' is the correct passive structure for simple past tense. 'Clothes' is a plural subject that will take 'were' as a plural verb. Hence, the sentence given in option (d) is correct.

Sol.278.(a) Switzerland by the

We generally do not use article 'the' after 'by' when we mention the means of transport such as bus, train, bike, car, flight, etc. Therefore, article 'the' will be removed. Hence, 'Switzerland by' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.279.(d) We knocked across

'Knocked across' must be replaced with the phrasal verb 'knocked off'. 'Knock off' means to stop work. The given sentence states that we stopped work early on Saturday to enjoy the beautiful weather. Hence, 'We knocked off' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.280.(b) strange vintage car

We generally use an indefinite article (a/an) before a non-specific noun. In the given sentence, the word 'strange' starts with a consonant sound. Therefore, article 'a' will be used. Hence, 'a strange vintage car' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.281.(c) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.282.(a) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct

Sol.283.(d) I are dancing

'Am' is the correct helping verb to use with 'I' in present continuous tense. Hence, 'I am dancing' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.284.(b) they go to a restaurant,

The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the verb in the past form (V₂), not the present form (go). Hence, 'they went to a restaurant' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.285.(c) will replaced traditional fossil fuels

'Modal verbs' are auxiliary verbs(also called helping verbs) like can, will, could, shall, must, would, might, and should. However, after a modal verb, we generally use the first form of the verb (V₁). Hence, 'will replace(V₁) traditional fossil fuels' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.286.(a) where we should visit several famous

'Should' must be replaced with 'will' as the action of visiting several famous landmarks will happen in the future (next summer). Hence, 'where we will visit several famous' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.287.(b) who work

'Who work' must be replaced with 'who has been working' as we use the perfect continuous tense with 'for/since' to indicate time period. Hence, 'who has been working' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.288.(d) violent banged

'Violent' must be replaced with 'violently' as the given sentence needs an adverb to modify the verb 'banged'. Hence, 'violently banged' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.289.(d) as his health is not more good

'More' must be removed as we use comparative degree adjective to make a comparison but there is no comparison between the health of two people. The first part of the sentence is in the past tense, so the verb in the second clause will also be in the past tense(V₂). Hence, 'as his health was not good' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.290.(b) he is as smarter as

'As + adjective/adverb + as' is a comparative structure in which we always use positive degree. Therefore, 'smarter' must be replaced with 'smart'. Hence, 'he is as smart as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.291.(d) the country's interior

The correct word to use in this sentence is 'internal', not 'interior'. 'Internal' means occurring inside a country. Hence, the country's internal is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.294.(a) I has worked there as a manager.

The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the verb of past tense. 'Had' will be used instead of 'has'. Hence, 'I had worked there as a manager' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.295.(a) will pay dear

The given sentence needs an adverb 'dearly' to modify the verb 'pay', not the adjective 'dear'. Hence, 'will pay dearly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.296.(b) his MBA degree into

'Into' must be replaced with 'from' as we use 'from' to indicate the source of something. Hence, 'his MBA degree from' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.297.(d) "Ouch! I will not work

'Ouch!' is used to express pain. However, in the given sentence, the speaker replied in a dry tone. So, the correct interjection to use is 'Ugh!'. Hence, 'Ugh! I will not work for you anymore' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.298.(d) have no interior

'Have no interior' must be replaced with 'has no ulterior'. 'Mr. Surya' is a singular subject that will take 'has' as a singular verb. Also, the correct word to use here is 'ulterior'. 'Ulterior motive' means a secret reason for doing something. Hence, 'has no ulterior' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.299.(a) I have the hundred reasons

The reasons given in the sentence are not specific and we use indefinite article for a non-specific noun. Article 'a' will be used as the word 'hundred' begins with a consonant sound. Hence, 'I have a hundred reasons' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.300.(b) had still overwhelmed

'Had' must be replaced with 'were' as the given sentence is an example of a passive voice of simple past tense and 'Plural subject (they) + were + V₃' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'were still overwhelmed(V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.301.(b) medicines increased

We use present continuous tense with 'for/since' to show that something has been happening for a period of time. 'Plural subject (prices) + have been + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'medicines have been increasing' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.302.(a) strengthen an intellectual

Indefinite article 'a/an' is not used for an abstract noun(solidarity). The definite article 'the' is used before a specific or particular noun. The given sentence is referring to a specific type of solidarity. Hence, 'strengthen the intellectual and moral solidarity' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.303.(c) Indian force are known for their loyalty and integrity. 'Forces' will be used instead of 'force' according to the plural verb 'are' and the plural adjective 'their'. Hence, the correct sentence is: "Indian forces are known for their loyalty and integrity."

Solutions :-

Sol.306.(c) he lived by the same principals

'Principals' must be replaced with 'principles' as the given sentence talks about a kind of belief or idea that guides you. Hence, 'he lived by the same principles' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.307.(c) will a heavy downpour.

The given sentence is in the past tense, not in the future tense, so it must have the verb in the past form 'was', . Hence, 'was a heavy downpour' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.308.(b) for anybody

'To' is used to denote the person to whom someone is talking. Hence, 'to anybody' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.309.(c) the agitators to back in

'Back out' is the correct phrasal verb to use here. 'Back out' means to withdraw or decide not to do something that was planned to do. Hence, 'the agitators to back out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.310.(b) the interior of a restaurant

Article 'the' is used when we refer to the same noun again because it becomes specific. Hence, 'the interior of the restaurant' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.311.(a) is further to

'Farther than' will be used instead of 'further to'. 'Further' is used for metaphorical distance where 'farther' is used for physical distance. The given sentence is talking about the physical distance between Mr. Ali's shop and the hospital. Hence, 'farther than' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.312.(d) well

The given sentence needs an adverb(well) to modify the verb (sings) and not an adjective(good). Hence, 'Rahul sings well' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.313.(b) able to drink

The correct word to use here is 'allowed' instead of 'able'. The given sentence states that you are not allowed to drink until you are 21. Hence, 'allowed to drink' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.314.(d) has played alongside

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'Two of the world's best forwards' is a plural subject that will take 'have' as a plural verb. Hence, 'have played alongside' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.315.(c) Ourselves

'Ourselves' must be replaced with 'We' as we use a subjective case pronoun (I/we/you) as the subject of a sentence. Hence, 'We' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.316.(a) superior than him.

There are some words that imply comparison but do not take 'than'. Rather, 'to' is used with them. For example:- superior to, inferior to, prior to, senior to, junior to, elder to, etc. Hence, 'superior to him' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.317.(c) I have sing

With 'has/have/had', the third form of the verb is used. However, 'sung' is the third form of 'sing'. Hence, 'I have sung' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.318.(b) my luggages.

'Luggage' is an uncountable noun, we cannot form its plural. Hence, 'my luggage' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.319.(c) move slowly

We use comparative degree with 'than' to compare two persons, things or animals. The given sentence makes a comparison between the movement of camels and other domestic animals. 'Slower' will be used instead of 'slowly'. Hence, 'move slower' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.320.(b) the engineer

Indefinite articles (a/an) are used when we refer to something in general. Article 'an' will be used here as the word 'engineer' begins with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an engineer' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.321.(d) is a heaviest

'Heaviest' is a superlative degree and we always place the definite article 'the' before any superlative degree. Hence, 'is the heaviest' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.322.(c) Jerry driving

Helping verb is missing in this sentence. The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the helping 'was' denoting past continuous tense. Hence, 'Jerry was driving' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.323.(b) The lions became violently

'Became' is a stative verb and we generally use an adjective after a stative verb. Therefore, 'violently' must be replaced with 'violent'. Hence, 'The lions became violent' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.324.(b) very louder

'Louder' must be replaced with 'loudly'. The given sentence needs an adverb to modify the verb 'barks', not the adjective 'louder'. Hence, 'very loudly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.328.(b) my friend calls me and ask

The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the verbs in the past form (V_2). Hence, 'my friend called (V_2) me and asked (V_2)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.329.(c) few next days.

The order of adjectives is wrong in this phrase. The correct order would be 'next few days'. Hence, 'next few days' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.330.(a) but it had no affect.

'Affect' must be replaced with 'effect' as we need a noun here to make the sentence meaningful. Hence, 'but it had no effect' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.331.(c) whom I

'Whom' must be replaced with 'which'. 'Whom' is used for a person whereas 'which' is used for things (book). Hence, 'which I' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.332.(b) latest

We use a comparative degree with 'than' to make a comparison between two things. 'Later' is the correct comparative degree of 'late'. Hence, 'later' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.333.(c) bad injured

The given sentence needs an adverb 'badly' to modify the adjective 'injured', not the adjective 'bad'. Hence, 'badly injured' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.334.(a) nevertheless my brother does not do

'Nevertheless' must be replaced with 'but' as we generally use 'but' when two statements differ from or contrast with each other. There is a contrast between working hard and not doing any task. Hence, 'but my brother does not do' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.335.(d) until the last house

'Until' must be replaced by 'to' because when referring to a destination or endpoint, 'to' is used. Hence, 'to the last house' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.336.(a) Ramayana is an ancient

The definite article 'the' is used before holy books. For example:- The Ramayana, The Mahabharata, The Quran, The Bible, etc. Hence, 'The Ramayana is an ancient' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.337.(d) Hard had she

'Hardly...when' is a fixed pair of conjunctions. Hence, 'Hardly had she' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.338.(a) more quicker

We don't use 'more or very' with the comparative degree because it becomes a case of superfluousness (not necessary). 'More' will be removed from the given sentence. Hence 'quicker' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.339.(c) If you had apprised me about your problem earlier, I would have allowed you to go.

The given sentence is an example of a third conditional sentence and the correct grammatical structure for it is 'If + past perfect (had + V_3)..... Would have + V_3 '. Hence, 'would have allowed (V_3)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.340.(a) Harmit is not as innocent as Uday.

"As...as" is a comparative structure used to compare two things. The given sentence is comparing Harmit with Uday. Hence, option (a) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.341.(b) come to football

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. At the end of a singular verb, s/es is used. In the given sentence, 'it' is a singular subject that will take 'comes' as a singular verb. Hence, 'comes to football' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.342.(b) Throw of

'Throw off' is the correct phrasal verb to use here. 'Throw off' means to rid oneself of something. The given sentence talks about getting rid of the old shoes. Hence, 'Throw off' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.343.(b) to wind out

'To wind out' must be replaced with 'to wind up'. 'Wind up' means to close or conclude a business. Hence 'to wind up' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.388.(a) no one expressed simpathy

'Sympathy' is the correct spelling.

Sol.389.(c) A great

The 'culture' mentioned in the given sentence is specific and we generally use the definite article 'the' before any specific or particular noun. Hence, 'The great culture' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.390.(b) The volunteer gave on to

The phrase 'gave on to' must be replaced with the phrasal verb 'gave out' which means to distribute something among a number of people. The given sentence talks about the distribution of food packets. Hence, 'The volunteer gave out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.391.(a) who was leaving college

The word 'last year' indicates the use of simple past tense. 'Left' is the past form(V₂) of 'leave'. Hence, 'who left (V₂) college' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.392.(a) ate his food

Monty will not change. This means Monty has been eating his food fast and he will keep eating. Therefore, the first part of the sentence will be written in present perfect continuous tense. 'Monty' is a singular subject that will take 'has been' as a singular helping verb. Hence, 'has been eating his food' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.393.(b) C

Stative verbs are those verbs which express a state or condition. They do not refer to a physical action. Sense and emotions like hear, smell, see, love, hate etc are different types of stative verbs. Verbs denoting thoughts and opinions include know, believe, think, understand, consider, etc. However, these verbs can't be used in (-ing form) for example, Hear, Smell (Correct) and Hearing, Smelling (Incorrect). Hence, 'you believe' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.394.(d) a mailbox again.

'Mailbox' mentioned in the given sentence is specific and we generally use the definite article 'the' before any specific or particular noun. Hence, 'the mailbox again' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.395.(b) historical context, Rahul go

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'Rahul' is a singular subject that will take 'goes' as a singular verb. Hence, 'historical context, Rahul goes' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.396.(a) Mathematics help Some nouns (mathematics, statics, physics) seem plural but they are actually singular forms. According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", singular subject takes singular verb. Hence, 'helps' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.397.(a) gave out prizes

'Gave out' must be replaced with 'gave away'. The phrasal verb 'give away' means to give something away as a gift. The given sentence talks about giving away gifts. Hence, 'gave away prizes' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.398.(a) William Wordsworth was a romantic poet. He did things in an unusual manner.

Article 'A' is used before the words starting from a consonant sound - (a conversation, a story). Whereas, the article 'An' is used before the words starting from a vowel sound (an imminent danger, an apple). The word 'romantic' starts with a consonant sound and the word 'unusual' begins with a vowel sound. Hence, the sentence given in option (a) correctly uses the articles.

Sol.399.(b) besides the lake

'Besides' must be replaced by 'beside'. 'Beside' means at the side of something while 'besides' means in addition to or apart from. Hence, 'beside the lake' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.400.(a) No error.

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.401.(a) policeman

Article 'a' must be used before the noun 'policeman' as it is singular and begins with a consonant sound. Hence, 'A policeman' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.402.(b) to chase out

'Chase out' must be replaced with 'chase down'. The phrasal verb 'chase down' means to follow and catch someone. The given sentence states that it is his job to chase down clients with outstanding debts. Hence, 'to chase down' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.403.(b) Seven days a week.

Article 'a' is used to indicate the frequency of an action. The frequency of the action means how many days in a week. Hence, 'seven days a week' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.404.(b) It was possible to achieve anything,

The given sentence is in the simple present tense so the verb must be used in the present form. 'It' is a singular subject that will take the singular verb 'is'. Hence, 'it is possible' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.405.(c) among you is to baked the

'To + V₁' is the grammatically correct structure. Hence, 'among you is to bake (V₁)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.406.(c) a book

'Book' mentioned in the given sentence is specific and we generally use the definite article 'the' before specific or particular nouns. Hence, 'the book' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.407.(b) visit a Statue of Liberty

'Statue of Liberty' is a historical monument and we generally use the definite article 'the' before the names of historical monuments. Hence, 'visit the Statue of Liberty' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.408.(a) I am understanding

'Understand' is a stative verb and stative verbs are generally not written in continuous tense. Rather, simple present tense will be used here. The first form of the verb is used in the simple present tense with 'I'. Hence, 'I understand(V₁)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.409.(c) he was reluctant

The given sentence is in the present tense, therefore the present form of the verb will be used here. 'Was' must be replaced with 'is'. Hence, 'he is reluctant' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.410.(c) he refused to agree to it

The use of the verb 'agree' after 'refused' is superfluous. 'Refuse' means to not agree to accept something. The phrase 'to agree to it' must be replaced with 'offer'. Hence, 'he refused the offer' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.411.(b) that tired and weak

Use of 'that' with 'that' is incorrect here. 'So...that' is the correct conjunction pair. Hence, 'so tired and weak' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.412.(d) I will be arranging all the necessary materials for the programme.

The given sentence is an example of 'Future continuous Tense' and follows the structure, "Will/shall + be + V_{ing}". Hence, the sentence given in option (d) is correct.

Sol.413.(a) a deer runs across the road

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, the past form(V₂) of the verb will be used. Hence, 'a deer ran (V₂) across the road' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.414.(d) One must do one's duty properly

One's is the correct possessive used for the pronoun 'one'. Hence, the sentence given in option (d) is correct.

Sol.415.(b) soundly slept

'Soundly slept' must be replaced with 'slept soundly' as the adverb (soundly) will be used after the verb 'slept'. Hence, 'slept soundly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.416.(c) It is a cheap reasonably

'Reasonably' is an adverb which modifies the adjective 'cheap' and the adverb is generally used before the adjective. Hence, 'It is a reasonably cheap' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.417.(d) a igloo

Article 'an' is used before the words beginning with a vowel sound (an apple, an umbrella, an MBA). Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'igloo' begins with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an igloo' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.418.(b) has been greatly underestimated

The given sentence is in the past tense, so the helping verb of past perfect tense (had) will be used in place of 'has'. Hence, 'had been greatly underestimated' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.419.(c) serious injured

The given sentence needs an adverb 'seriously' to modify the verb (injured), not the adjective 'serious'. Hence, 'seriously injured' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.420.(a) I am working with him since 2002,

Present perfect continuous tense is used with 'for/since' to indicate the duration or starting point of an action. 'I + have been + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for this sentence. Hence, 'I have been working with him since 2002' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.421.(b) lonely in

The given sentence needs an adverb 'lonely' to modify the verb 'lives', not the adjective 'lonely'. Hence, 'alone in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.422.(a) By the time I reaching

If two actions happened in the past, 1st action is written in past perfect tense(had + V₃) and 2nd action is written in simple past tense(V₂). In the given sentence, reaching the metro station is the 2nd action. Hence, 'By the time I reached(V₂)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.423.(d) horse

We generally use an indefinite article before a singular noun. Article 'a' will be used before 'horse' as it begins with a consonant sound. Hence, 'a horse' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.424.(a) comparatively better

'Better' is the comparative degree of 'good'. The use of 'comparatively' with 'better' is superfluous, so it will be removed. Hence, 'better' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.425.(b) If I have recovered from fever

The given sentence is an example of the first conditional sentence and 'If + Simple present ... will + V₁' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'If I recover from fever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.426.(a) I am looking for the

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, 'am' will be replaced with 'was' to indicate past continuous tense. Hence, 'I was looking for the' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.427.(c) When my father will come

'When' is used to introduce a time clause, which is not written in the future tense. Rather, simple present tense is used to indicate the time of the main event. Hence, 'When my father comes' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.428.(c) trained never to

The position of 'never' is incorrect in this sentence. Here, 'never' is used to modify the infinitive 'to fight', therefore it will be used between 'to' and 'fight'. Hence, 'trained to never' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.429.(b) stricken

'Stricken' is the correct verb form.

Sol.430.(d) The committee works diligently to ensure fair and unbiased decision.

The given sentence is an example of simple present tense and follows the structure, 'Singular subject + V-s/es'. Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.431.(d) has emphasized and

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'people' is a plural subject that will take 'have' as a plural verb. Hence, 'have emphasized and' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.432.(d) Himalayas include the Article 'the' is used before mountain ranges. 'Himalayas' is a mountain range. Hence, 'The Himalayas include the' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.433.(b) food greedy

The given sentence needs an adverb 'greedily' to modify the verb 'ate', not the adjective 'greedy'. Hence, 'food greedily' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.434.(c) (D) - it tasted sweet

'Taste' is a stative verb and we generally use an adjective with stative verbs. For example:- tastes sweet, smells nice, looks great, etc. Therefore, the adverb 'sweetly' will be replaced with the adjective 'sweet'. Hence, 'it tasted sweet' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.435.(d) a international

Article 'an' is used before the words beginning with a vowel sound (an apple, an umbrella, an American). Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'international' begins with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an international' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.436.(d) I will be drive into town later on.

'Will be + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for the sentence which is in the future continuous tense. 'Drive' must be replaced with 'driving'. Hence, the sentence given in option (d) has an error.

Sol.437.(c) are here to

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'Most of the committee' is a singular subject that will take 'is' as a singular verb. Hence, 'is here to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.438.(b) he asked me money

'Asked me money' must be replaced with 'asked me for money'. The phrasal verb 'ask for' means to try to obtain something by requesting. Similarly, Ramu tried to obtain some money by requesting. Hence, 'he asked me for money' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.439.(a) Error is in the sentence formation. Preposition and gerund are required. The correct sentence should read like this: Mohan insisted on going there.

Sol.440.(b) of Ganga and it

'Ganga' is a river and we generally use the definite article 'the' before the names of rivers. Hence, 'of the Ganga and it' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.441.(b) fell off after their father

'Fell off' must be replaced with 'fell apart'. The phrasal verb 'fall apart' means to become separated. The given passage talks about separation of the sons. Hence, 'fell apart after their father' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.442.(b) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.443.(d) you had completed

'Would have' is used to indicate the result of a past unreal condition. In the given sentence, 'working regularly' is the past unreal condition and 'completing the project' is its result. Hence, 'you would have completed' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.444.(b) carried minimum

'To + V₁', also known as infinitive, is the correct grammatical structure. Hence, 'carry(V₁) minimum' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.445.(d) my uncle is

'My uncle is' must be replaced with 'my uncle has been'. Present perfect tense (Singular Sub. + has + V₃) is used to indicate a state that has existed for some time. Hence, 'my uncle has been(V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.446.(d) times the day

Article 'a' is used to indicate the frequency of an action. For example:- twice a day, four times a day, etc. Hence, 'times a day' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.447.(c) was first man

The article "the" is used before adjectives denoting rank, order or position. Therefore, article 'the' will be used before 'first'. Hence,

'was the first man' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.448.(b) Centre for Policy Research estimate

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. At the end of a singular verb, s/es is used. In the given sentence, 'Centre for Policy Research' is a singular subject that will take 'estimates' as a singular verb. Hence, 'Centre for Policy Research estimates' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.449.(c) watered the plants

'Watered' must be replaced with 'watering' as 'Singular Sub + has been + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for the sentence which is in present perfect continuous tense. The subject 'he' is singular. Hence, 'watering the plants' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.450.(b) yesterday at hall

'Hall' given in the sentence is specific and we use the definite article 'the' before specific or particular nouns. Hence, 'yesterday at the hall' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.451.(a) Earth revolves around the sun.

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb. At the end of a singular verb, s/es is used. In the given sentence, 'Earth' is a singular subject that will take 'revolves' as a singular verb. Hence, 'Earth revolves around the sun.' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.452.(d) an Himalayas is

'Himalayas' is a mountain range and we use the definite article 'the' before mountain ranges. Hence, 'the Himalayas is' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.453.(a) as it will affect

We use simple present tense to state a scientific fact. It is a scientific fact that TV affects eyesight. Therefore, 'will' must be removed and the singular verb 'affects' will be used for the singular subject 'it'. Hence, 'as it affects' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.454.(a) have gone to the beach

The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the verb in the past form (V₂). 'Went' is the past form. Hence, 'went to the beach' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.455.(a) she has been teaching

The future perfect tense is used to express an action that will be completed before another point in the future. The correct structure for future tense is 'By the time + Simple present tense, ... Future perfect tense'. Hence, 'she will have taught' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.456.(d) a lots of fun

The correct phrase is 'a lot of'. Its plural form is 'lots of'. Therefore, 'lot' will be used in place of 'lots'. Hence, 'a lot of' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.457.(b) So he win easily

The given sentence is in the past tense, so it must have the verbs in the past form (V₂), not in the present form (V₁). Therefore, 'won' will be used in place of 'win'. Hence, 'so he won (V₂) easily' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.458.(c) of a wisest man

'One of + the + superlative adjective + plural noun' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, article 'the' will be used in place of article 'a' and the plural noun 'men' will be used in place of 'man'. Hence, 'of the wisest men' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.459.(a) He was consulted seldom

An adverb of frequency is generally placed after the helping verb and before the main verb in a sentence. Examples are :- often, always, seldom, never, etc. Therefore, 'seldom' will be placed after the helping verb 'was'. Hence, 'He was seldom consulted' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.460.(c) a President are visiting

'President' is a specific person and we always use the definite article 'the' before specific or particular nouns. Hence, 'the President are visiting' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.461.(c) Festivals are celebrated everywhere to rejuvenate the minds of people.

We do not use any article when we refer to something in general. Therefore, article 'the' will be removed before the noun 'festival' as the given sentence is stating a general truth about festivals. Hence, the sentence given in option (c) has the correct use of article.

Sol.462.(a) witnesses of

The preposition 'to' is used after the nouns 'witness' or 'testimony'. And the correct structure is 'witness/testimony to an event'. Hence, 'witnesses to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.463.(d) be cautius

'Cautious' is the correct spelling.

Sol.464.(c) the petals of an Article 'a' is used before words beginning with the consonant sound. For example:- a conversation, a story. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'rose' begins with a consonant sound. Hence, 'the petals of a rose' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.465.(c) She is enough wise

The adverb 'enough' is always used after the adjective. Similarly, in the given sentence, 'enough' will be used after the adjective 'wise'. Hence, 'She is wise enough' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.466.(d) Generally, a cycle has an Article 'a' is used before words beginning with consonant sound. For example:- a car, a man, a cycle, etc. Similarly, in the given sentence, the word 'seat' begins with a consonant sound. Hence, 'Generally, a cycle has a seat' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.467.(c) Netaji, a hero of Modern

Article 'the' is used before the title given to an important personality. 'Hero of Modern India' is a title given to 'Netaji'. Hence, 'Netaji, the Hero of Modern' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.468.(c) No error.

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.469.(d) considered pseudoscience

The 'pseudoscience' mentioned in the given sentence is not specific and we generally use the indefinite article 'a' before a non-specific noun. Hence, 'considered a pseudoscience' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.470.(d) Meera is the elder

'Elder' must be replaced with 'eldest'. The definite article 'the' is used before a superlative degree. Hence, 'Meera is the eldest' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.471.(d) in an earlier job, he will never be 'A man' is already mentioned as a subject of this sentence. We cannot use 'he' in the sentence as it becomes the case of superfluosness(not necessary). Therefore, 'he' must be removed from the sentence. Hence, 'in an earlier job, will never be' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.472.(a) that the Monarchy is

Article 'the' must be removed. No article is used before the forms of government such as democracy, plutocracy, dictatorship, monarchy. Hence, 'that Monarchy is' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.473.(c) No error.

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.474.(b) told the rather improbable

'The' must be replaced with 'a'. Article 'the' is used for specific or particular nouns but the 'story' mentioned in the sentence is not specific. Hence, 'told a rather improbable' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.475.(a) although it is urgent.

'Although' must be replaced with 'as / because'. The issue is urgent, that is why discussion on it can not be postponed. Here, we need a connector to show the cause or reason. Hence, 'because it is urgent' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.476.(b) Are you yet

'Yet' must be replaced with 'still'. 'Yet' is used to show contrast between two events. 'Still' is used to show that an action was happening in the past and continuing in the present. Hence, 'Are you still' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.477.(a) very acclaimed

'Very' must be replaced with 'much'. 'Very' is used with present participles(V_{ing}), not with past participles(V_3). Hence, 'much acclaimed' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.478.(b) make it to drink.

'To' must be removed. There are some verbs that take a bare infinitive(without 'to') after them. These are 'make, let, bid, see, watch, observe'. Hence, 'make it drink' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.479.(b) One must do one's duty properly.

Each pronoun has its own possessive adjective. For example - (I/my), (he/his), (she/her), (one/one's). Hence, option (b) is the correct sentence.

Sol.480.(b) It is time someone takes

Simple Past Tense(Subject + V_2) is used after phrases such as "It is time / It is about time / It is high time". Therefore, 'takes' will be replaced with 'took(V_2)'. Hence, 'It is time someone took' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.481.(b) No error. The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.482.(c) None than you

'Than' must be replaced with 'but'. The correct phrase is 'none but' or 'none other than', which means 'only'. Hence, 'none but you' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.637.(d) When Mrs. Sinha came to see Varanasi in 2019, Nupur has already been teaching there for five years.

'Has been' must be replaced 'had been' as the first clause of the sentence is in Past Tense. So, we need to use "Past Perfect Tense(Had been + V₁-ing)" to make the sentence grammatically correct. Hence, 'Nupur had already been teaching(V₁- ing)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.638.(d) an hurry

'An hurry' must be replaced with 'a hurry' as article 'A' is used before the words starting from a consonant sound - (a conversation, a story). Hence, 'She is in a hurry' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.639.(b) He was always been a grumpy man, so I never liked him and avoided his company.

'Was' must be replaced with 'has' in the error part. As "has" is the auxiliary verb used with the past participle "been" to indicate a continuous state from the past to the present. Hence, 'he has always been' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.640.(c) she will have been

The given sentence is an example of 'Future perfect continuous Tense' and the correct grammatical structure is "Will/shall + have been + V₁-ing". Hence, 'she will have been' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.641.(d) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.642.(d) get extreme cold

'Extreme' must be replaced with 'extremely' as the given sentence needs an adverb to modify the adjective(cold). Hence, 'It can get extremely cold' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.643.(d) beneath my room

There is a prepositional error in the given sentence. The preposition 'beneath' must be replaced with 'in' as 'beneath' is used to indicate a location that is below something and 'in' is used to indicate that something is located inside of something else. Hence, 'in my room' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.644.(d) a lot by

There is a prepositional error in the given sentence. 'A lot by' must be replaced with 'a lot from' as the preposition 'by' is generally used to indicate the way something is done and the preposition 'from' is used to indicate the source of gaining knowledge. Hence, 'a lot from' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.645.(b) I would like to spend an evening near a pool with a cup of coffee.

(a) I would like to spend a evening near a pool with a cup of coffee. (Incorrect article)

(d) I would like to spend an evening near pool with a cup of coffee. (Article missing)

Sol.646.(c) try and learn language

'And' must be replaced with 'to' as we generally use an 'to + infinitive(V₁)' after certain verbs like try, bid, let, make, need etc. Hence, 'try to learn language' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.647.(b) job-seekers who are already

'Are' must be replaced with 'have' as we need to use present perfect tense (have + V₃) to indicate actions that started in the past and continue into the present. Hence, 'job-seekers who have already' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.648.(d) He is as concerned as me

Pronoun 'Me' must be replaced with 'I' as the conjunction pair

"as....as" is used to do comparison between the same 'Cases of pronoun'. So we need to use the subjective case of pronoun i.e. 'I'. Hence, 'He is as concerned as I' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.649.(a) she asked me to sit reluctant

'Reluctant' must be replaced with 'Reluctantly' as we generally use adverbs to modify or describe verbs(sit). Hence, 'she asked me to sit reluctantly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.650.(b) hold on the people

'On' must be replaced with 'back' as the "Hold back" is a phrasal verb that means to stop or prevent someone or something. Hence, 'hold back the people' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.651.(a) to get better from

'Better' must be replaced with 'back' as the phrase 'get back' means to return. Hence, 'get back' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.652.(d) for scratching of whole areas

Preposition 'of' will be removed as scratch is a transitive verb and it will not use any preposition with it. The will be used before "whole". Hence, 'For scratching the whole areas' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.653.(c) restaurant about here?

'About' will be removed. 'About' is not needed. Hence, 'restaurant here' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.454.(c)

Factoring is, of course, different from and superior than

'Than' will be replaced by 'to' as we generally use the preposition 'to' with some Adjectives for comparison (Similar, Superior, Inferior, Equal, Identical). Hence, 'Factoring is, of course, different from and superior to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.655.(d) Now its referring to the same

It's is a contraction and should be used where a sentence would read "it is." Its with no apostrophe is the possessive pronoun, like "his" and "her," for nouns without gender. Hence, 'Now it's referring to the same' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.656.(c) discusses is funny, playing

'Playing' must be replaced with 'playful' as we need to use a predicative adjective : These adjectives come after linking verbs (e.g., "be," "become," "seem") and describe the subject of the sentence. Hence, 'discusses is funny, playful' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.657.(d) attack we have ever seen.

"One of the + Superlative degree of the adjective(best, worst, etc) + Plural Subject" is grammatically the correct structure. For example, one of the best men, one of the greatest kings, one of the worst phones, etc. Hence, 'attacks we have ever seen' is the most appropriate structure.

Sol.658.(d) no error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.659.(d) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.660.(a) there is a number

'Is' must be replaced with 'are' in the given sentence. According to the subject-verb agreement, 'A + Number of + Plural nouns' always takes plural verbs. Hence, 'there are a number' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.661.(c) difficult tasks demand lot

We generally use article 'a' with 'lot' as an expression meaning 'a larger quantity' or 'many' (a lot of books, a lot of experience). Hence, 'difficult tasks demand a lot' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.662.(d) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.663.(b) involve! Sandhya

'Involve' must be replaced with 'Involved' in the given sentence. As we generally use past participles with the verb 'get'. Hence, 'involved! Sandhya' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.664.(d) Never put off

'Of' must be replaced with 'off' as the phrasal verb 'put off' means to delay doing something. Hence, 'never put off' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.665.(c) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.666.(d) to make of matching

The preposition 'of' must be replaced with 'by' in the given sentence. The use of the preposition 'by' is correct because it is indicating the method by which the shapes are made. While the preposition 'of' is used to indicate a part of something. Hence, 'to make by matching' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.667.(c) it have been another long day.

'Have' must be replaced with 'has' in the given sentence. According to the subject-verb agreement, a singular subject takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. Here, in the sentence 'it' is a singular subject. Hence, 'it has been another long day' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.668.(c) was smooth as the most timid of

Conjunction 'as' will be replaced with 'as...as'. The conjunction 'as' is used to state the reason whereas the conjunction 'as...as' is used to state similarity between two things or situations. The given sentence states the similarity of smoothness between the passage and the desires of the most timid navigator. Hence, 'as smooth as the most timid' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.669.(b) When I have arrived at

If two actions took place in the past then the 1st action must be in the Past perfect tense (Had + V₃) and the 2nd action must be in the Simple Past tense (V₂). Hence, 'when I arrived at' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.670.(a) gaze became distinctly coldest

'Coldest' must be replaced by 'colder' as to maintain consistency, the correct usage would be to use the comparative degree throughout the sentence. In this correction, both "higher" and "colder" are in the comparative degree, indicating a comparison between two states or levels. Hence, 'gaze became distinctly colder' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.671.(b) Early, during December 2021

The error in the sentence is the use of the word "during." Since the sentence specifies December 2021, it implies that Lal was appointed as the Secretary to the Lokpal at some point within that month. However, the word "during" suggests a continuous action or a period of time, which is not appropriate in this context. Hence, 'Early in december 2021' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.672.(a) In 79 A.D., the Mount Vesuvius blew

Article 'the' must be removed as we generally use article 'the' with the names of mountains but we do not use 'the' if the name includes Mount or Mountain (Mount Olympus, Brokeback Mountain).

Sol.673.(c) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.674.(c) If I was a clown,

'Was' must be replaced with 'Were'. When expressing unreal or hypothetical situations in the present or future, the subjunctive mood is used, which requires the use of 'were' instead of 'was' after 'if'. Hence, 'If I were a clown' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.675.(b) Peoples might confess

'Peoples' must be replaced with 'people' as people is already the plural form and it doesn't require 's' to make its plural form. Hence, 'people might confess' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.676.(a) No error

The sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.677.(c) played badminton, are you good?

'Played' must be replaced with 'play' as we generally use bare infinitives after the verbs such as let, bid, see, hear, watch, observe, etc. Hence, 'play badminton, are you good' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.678.(b) the more loud they would scream.

The phrase 'the more loud' will be replaced with the correct comparative degree 'the louder'. Hence, 'the louder they would scream' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.679.(a) as strong possible.

'As strong possible' will be replaced with 'as strong as possible'. This is because "As...as" is a comparative structure that shows similarity or equality between two elements. It is used to compare two things or actions and indicates that they are of the same degree or level. Hence, 'as strong as possible' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.680.(d) help me to

'Help me to' will be replaced with 'help me with' as the verb "help" is typically followed by the preposition "with" when indicating assistance or support in accomplishing a task or project. Hence, 'Help me with' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.681.(a) eleven to get of the last two

'Get of' will be replaced with 'Get off' as it means to successfully complete or achieve. It conveys the intended meaning that eleven runs were needed to successfully complete the last two deliveries. Hence, 'Get off' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.682.(b) glittery pen black?

Adjectives should be written before the noun (pen) that is being qualified. The general order of adjectives before a noun is the following: Opinion, Size, Shape, Condition, Age, Colour, Pattern, Origin, Material and Purpose. 'Glittery' represents opinion and

'black' is the color. Hence, 'glittery black pen' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.683.(a) Before he could devote many more

'Many more' will be replaced with 'much more' as much is used to describe the quantity of an uncountable noun. The word "thought" is an uncountable noun, which means it cannot be used with 'many'. Hence, 'before he could devote much more' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.684.(d) customers find an best outfit.

'An' will be replaced with 'the' as the adjective 'best' is the superlative degree of 'well' and we generally use definite articles with superlative degrees. Hence, 'customers find the best outfit' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.685.(b) work he became the slyer

'The slyer' will be replaced with 'the slyest' as 'slyer' is a comparative form and we need a superlative form of the adjective 'sly' i.e. 'slyest' to match the later part of the sentence. Hence, 'Work he became the slyest' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.686.(d) Neither teachers or

'Neither teachers or' will be replaced with 'neither teachers nor' as 'neither....nor' is a fixed conjunction pair. Hence, 'Neither teachers nor' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.687.(a) George handing the

The use of verb 'handing' is incorrect here because we can not use V_4 (ing) as the main verb without a helping verb. The adverb 'later' indicates something happened after some time. 'Handing' will be replaced with the past form 'handed' to make it grammatically correct. Hence, 'George handed the' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.688.(b) changing the balance of

The verb 'changing' is incorrect because we can not use V_4 (ing form) with the helping verb of present perfect tense(has/have). The third form (V_3) 'changed' will be used in place of 'changing'. Hence, 'changed the balance of' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.689.(a) Largest farmers usually

'Largest farmers' will be replaced with 'the largest farmers' as when referring to a specific group of farmers, the definite article 'the' is required before the superlative adjective 'largest'. Hence, 'the largest farmers usually' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.690.(d) be punished immediate.

Adjective 'Immediate' must be replaced with the adverb 'immediately' as we need an adverb to modify the verb 'punished'. Hence, 'to be punished immediately' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.691.(a) books into the extreme

'Into' will be replaced with 'in' as the preposition 'in' indicates the location of the books. Hence, 'books in the extreme' will be the most appropriate answer.

Sol.692.(b) Mothers can pass the HIV virus to Article 'the' must be removed as we don't use article 'the' before names. 'HIV' is the name of a virus. Hence, 'Mothers can pass HIV virus to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.693.(c) Muses is going stronger

'Muses is' will be replaced with 'muses are'. According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a plural subject (muses) always takes a plural verb(are). Hence, 'Muses are going stronger' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.694.(a) might not work out in

Preposition 'In' must be replaced with 'on' as we generally use 'on' to discuss the success or outcome of a particular activity or process. Hence, 'might not work out in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.695.(c) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.696.(c) The government have a rudimentary plan for

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'government' is a singular subject that will take 'has' as a singular form. Hence, 'The government has a rudimentary plan for' is the most appropriate structure.

Sol.697.(d) things on common

The phrase 'in common' is used to describe similarity between two or more things or persons. The given sentence is talking about similarity between all of the farmers that were interviewed. Hence, 'things in common' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.698.(c) Fires in California is

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, 'fires' is a plural subject that will take 'are' as a plural verb. Hence, 'Fires in California are' is the most appropriate structure.

Sol.699.(d) provinces of the Great Britain and some

The definite article "the" should not be used before "Great Britain" in this passage. "Great Britain" is a proper noun and It does not require the definite article "the" before it. Hence, 'provinces of Great Britain and some' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.700.(b) Sorry I will be late as a flight

'As a flight' will be replaced with 'as the flight' because article 'the' is used when talking about something definite or particular. In the given sentence the person is talking about the flight he is going to aboard. Hence, 'sorry I will be late as the flight' is the most appropriate answer.
