Q.7. Determine the part of speech of the highlighted word in the given sentence.

This is the most simple and basic component of life.

Graduate Level 26/07/2025 (Shift - 3)

- (a) Noun (b) Pronoun
(c) Adjective (d) Adverb

Solutions :-

Sol.1.(b) homonym.

The word 'fine' has two different meanings but the same spelling and pronunciation. Therefore, 'fine' is an example of a homonym.

Sol.2.(c) He is the most talented artist in the competition.

The superlative degree 'most talented' is used in Option (c). Hence, option (c) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.3.(d) Her idea is more creative than mine.

The sentence given in option (d) uses the correct comparative degree, i.e. 'more creative'. Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.4.(a) The captain turned down the sails to increase the speed.

The phrasal verb "turn down" means to reject or to reduce, so it cannot be used for increasing speed.

Lowering sails would actually decrease the speed, making the sentence incorrect. The other sentences correctly use their phrasal verbs.

Sol.5.(b) The reporter covered the current events happening in the city.

In the highlighted sentence, 'current' means water flow. In option (b), 'current' means present or recent, which has a different meaning but same spelling and pronunciation, making it a homonym.

Sol.6.(b) strongly

As there is no comparison in the given sentence, positive degree will be used. 'Strongly' is a positive degree adverb. Hence, 'strongly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.7.(b) Pronoun

'This' is a demonstrative pronoun in the given sentence. There are four main demonstrative pronouns:- this, that, these, those.

- (a) I waited for so more years to be with you.
(b) Each of the players were given a separate instruction.
(c) Neither of the answers seem convincing enough.
(d) One of the books was missing from the shelf.

Solutions :-

Sol.8.(d) New Delhi is hotter than Chandigarh.

The adjective 'hot' in the comparative degree becomes 'hotter', not 'more hotter'. The correct structure is comparative adjective + than. Hence, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.9.(d) The chef has arranged the cherries in a pattern.

'In a pattern' is the correct collocation, which means according to a particular design or order. Hence, option (d) uses the correct collocation.

Sol.10.(b) He kept the ticket as a memento of his first train journey.

‘Memento’ means an object kept as a reminder of a person, place, or event. In option (b), ‘memento’ is used as a noun in its proper sense, showing something preserved to remember a past experience.

Sol.11.(d) They’re

‘They’re is a contraction of “They are”.

‘Are + V_{ing}’ is the correct grammatical structure of present continuous tense.

Hence, ‘They’re is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.12.(a) I waited for so more years to be with you.

‘Many’ is used with plural countable nouns. ‘Years’ is a plural noun. Hence, ‘I waited for so many’ is the most appropriate answer.
